If you book these stables and are found to have booked for a mare or gelding, you agree to forfeit or accept another stable (if available) as STALLIONS will have priority. Competitors need to be aware that stallion boxes WILL be reallocated to stallions should the need arise. Our Society cannot guarantee any accommodation; therefore, you book on the understanding that you arrange your own care of your horses if necessary.

- The Committee shall also have the power to require statutory declarations be made concerning any animals or article exhibited.
- All persons exhibiting shall accept the decision of the judges, and in the case of written protests or disputes as to the construction of any of these regulations, or the meaning of anything in the prize list, the decision of the Committee shall be accepted as final and without appeal.
- Protests must be lodged with a deposit of $100 (which may be forfeited if considered frivolous) to the secretary in writing, on the day of competition.
- The privileges of distributing trade lists, advertisements, or other documents are restricted exclusively to exhibitors at their respective stands. Any infringement of this regulation will incur expulsion from the grounds.
- Every care will be taken of exhibits, but no responsibility will be incurred by the Society. The Society will not be responsible for any accident that may be caused through or by any exhibit, and it shall be a condition of entry that each exhibitor shall hold the Society harmless and indemnify it against any legal proceedings arising from such accident.

- The Committee may at any time for such reasons as may seem sufficient to it, waive in individual cases, or generally, compliance with the regulations
- Or may extend or vary the times for doing anything fixed by the regulations or the prize schedule, either in individual cases or generally.
- In compiling this schedule, all care has been taken, but no responsibility will be incurred by the Society for omissions or misprints. It is subject to change without notice.
