8. Animals must be haltered in the ring.

The Committee reserves the absolute right to refuse admission to the ground of any exhibit for any reason seeming sufficient to the Committee, provided that an entry fee paid be refunded (if applicable). The owner or exhibitor of any exhibit disapproved of as an exhibit by the Committee of the Society must, immediately on notice to that effect, remove such exhibit from the Society's grounds. The Committee reserves the right of refusing or cancelling any entry without giving reasons for doing so.
5. By attending this event, you can be expected to have your photo taken without consent, unless you contact the ringmaster.

8. The Committee may withhold any prize when misstatements have erroneously or fraudulently been made regarding any exhibit, and exhibitors guilty of false entries or statements may be debarred from again exhibiting, and if members, will be liable to expulsion from the Society.
9. Should any exhibitor having gained a prize be disqualified, the next on the list does not necessarily obtain the same prize. The Committee, with or without the advice of the judges, shall make all required awards.
10. The Committee shall also have the power to require statutory declarations be made concerning any animals exhibited.
11. All persons exhibiting shall accept the decision of the judges, and in the case of written protests or disputes as to the construction of any of these regulations, or the meaning of anything in the prize list, the decision of the Committee shall be accepted as final and without appeal.

13. The privileges of distributing trade lists, advertisements, or other documents are restricted exclusively to exhibitors at their respective stands. Any infringement of this regulation will incur expulsion from the grounds.
14. Every care will be taken of exhibits, but no responsibility will be incurred by the Society. The Society will not be responsible for any accident that may be caused through or by any exhibit, and it shall be a condition of entry that each exhibitor shall hold the Society harmless and indemnify it against any legal proceedings arising from such accident. • The Committee may at any time for such reasons as may seem sufficient to it, waive in individual cases, or generally, compliance with the regulations
15. Or may extend or vary the times for doing anything fixed by the regulations or the prize schedule, either in individual cases or generally.
16. In compiling this schedule, all care has been taken, but no responsibility will be incurred by the Society for omissions or misprints. It is subject to change without notice.
